At 4:00 P. M. the sodalists and Girl Scouts marched in procession to church and upon entering sang the hymn "For Christ The King", at the same time forming the "Living Rosary". After the recitation of the rosary a dedication to the Blessed Mother was recited as a group. OWLS BEAT SABINAL 33-0

The Hondo Owls rolled up 33 points in a wild-scoring game Friday night on Barry Field to win from the Sabinal Yellow Jackets who failed to score. Taylor of Hondo ran 75 yards on the first offensive play for the Owls in the opening quarter, crossing into pay dirt after this long gallop. Later in the game Woolfs topped this run by about five yards for another Owl score. Coach Bridges' first string started the game, being replaced by the second, third and fourth strings as the game advanced.

The Owls have no games scheduled for Friday nights, Oct. 12th and 19th, but travel to Uvalde for their first district game on Oct. 26th. An additional game is being played tonight (Thursday) on Barry Field with the Thomas Jefferson Reserves of San Antonio.

HONDO COMETS TO BATTLE B-29 BASE TEAM TONIGHT

Hondo Army Air Field will be host to a Kansas Army eleven-tonight (Friday, Oct. 12), when the Superfortress gridders from Great Bend invade Barry stadium in Hondo, with game time scheduled for 8 P. M.

The Hondo Comets plan to sharpen their teeth on the squad from the Kansas B-29 base for their battle Saturday afternoon, Oct. 20, with Fort Warren, Wyo., to be fought in Omaha, Neb.

However, little is known of the Great Benders, and it is quite possible the B-29ers will dominate this chapter of Hondo's football season. The team from the Jayhawk state lost to Hutchinson, Kan., Naval Base, 20 to 6, last week, while a last quarter safety registered by Bergstrom AAF cost the Comets their last week's game.

Hondo Coach Bob Coe has been working his charges hard this week and believes he has ironed out several glaring kinks in his offense and defense. This week's game, scheduled when Blackland Field, Waco, had to cancel, should mold the newblood-studded Comet organization into a powerful, smooth-running machine needed for the forthcoming terrific struggle with the mighty Wyoming eleven.

One of Hondo's native sons, 19-year-old Stanley Hollmig, who was a high school flash for the Hondo Owls in 1942-43, will see plenty of action for the first time during his army career on his alma mater gridiron Friday night. One of the state's most outstanding prep school passers and punters, the 185-pound, 6-foot-2 halfback has shown up well in the two weeks' service he has seen with the Comet eleven.

Several other newcomers, backs and linemen, are expected to get their chance to show Friday night, some of whom will undoubtedly clinch permanent berths on the first string.

CAPT TAYLOR RETURNS AS HONDO FIELD P. R. O.

Capt. Leon M. Taylor, who recently was transferred from Hondo Army Air Field to a Port of Replacement in California for shipment to Manila, returned Wednesday to his duties as Public Relations Officer at HAAF.

Upon arrival as PRO, Capt. Taylor was informed that he was ineligible for overseas service as the result of the lowering of Adjusted Service Rating scores for officers and men concerning overseas shipment.

His wife, Mrs. Juanita Taylor, arrived Wednesday afternoon from Port Arthur, Texas, and the Taylors have located in the Fly apartment.

ALL-GIRL REVIEW BOOKED AT HAAF'S CLUBS

Featuring next week at the NCO Club and Officers Club will be the all-girl revue, "Stars on Parade."

The show is scheduled for Monday night as a Stag Night feature at the Officers Club and on Tuesday night, Oct. 16, at the NCO Club.

On Saturday night, Oct. 13, an informal dance is scheduled at the Officers Club, with "Family Night" and a Bingo Party on the menu for Tuesday night, Oct. 16.

The NCO has booked a dance for Saturday night, Oct. 20.

No dance is scheduled at the Service Club next week.

ALL-SOLDIER SHOW STAGED

One of the finest all-soldier shows to play at HAAF in recent months was the variety show staged at the Post Theatre and later at the Officers Club Monday night by a troupe from Harlingen.

The OFTC-sponsored revue, filled with comedy and novelty stunts, hit a fast pace at the start and kept the show moving rapidly through to the end. Outstanding performances were staged by a versatile, glib-tongued magician and two GI's in a tumbling act.

BERGSTROM DEFEATS COMET SQUAD IN TOUGH BATTLE

Hondo Army Air Field's Comets, in a close-fought battle on a rain-drenched gridiron, were defeated 15-13 by the Bergstrom Field Troop Carriers Friday night, October 5.

After a day of continuous rain the Austin High School stadium was soggy when the two elevens took to the field, and it took several minutes of the initial period for the gridders to become accustomed to the wet, slippery pigskin.

Coach Coe of the Comets had hoped to use his effective passing offensive, but the slippery pigskin and soggy ground made it difficult for Cunningham to flip the ball accurately or receivers to snag it. Cunningham's only completed pass of the game was good for a total of 70 yards.

The fact that the Comet forward wall was considerably outweighed also was a deciding factor in the Hondo offensive, although Hondo's spirited linemen played a hard-charging aggressive ball game. Joe Bushek turned up a bang-up game at the right guard slot, as did Elmer Glauner in his left guard position. Paul Hagan, playing at left end for the Comets, was one of the outstanding players on the field, both offensively and defensively.

Hagan, up from the second string due to the injury of Ed Sobczak, had been shaping up very well during the week before the game, and proved his worth to Coach Coe, who now will be relying on the lanky Oklahoma lad. On the opposite end of the Comet line, big Otto Schnellbacher turned in his usual stellar performance, breaking up several plays that the Troop Carriers threw at his side of the line.

In the backfield, a newcomer to Hondo's first string was flashy Richard Bushnell, 160-pound halfback who broke away three times for good yardage through the Bergstrom secondary.

On paper the Hondo-Bergstrom tussle showed that Bergstrom gained a total of 157 yards rushing, while Hondo gained but 71. Hondo, in five attempts, completed one forward pass good for 70 yards, but Bergstrom in 8 attempts completed five passes for a total of 44 yards. The Troop Carriers ran up a total of 11 first downs to the Comets 4, while Bergstrom's punt average was 42.6 to Hondo's 38.3. Hondo fumbled five times to Bergstrom's four.

COUNTY JUDGE DISCUSSES BOND ISSUE

Inclement weather cut the attendance at the mass meeting held Tuesday night, Oct. 9, at the high school gymnasium. Those attending, however, were treated to a Mexican supper sponsored by the Hondo Chamber of Commerce.

The purpose of the meeting was to bring before the citizenship of Hondo the aims and purposes of the proposed $800,000 county-wide road bond issue. The County will call an election on the question of issuing the bonds on November 10, 1945.

Presenting the facts to the assembly, County Judge Arthur H. Rothe gave statistics showing how the taxpayers will save money over a period of 20 years through the improvement of the lateral and farm-to-market roads, this saving representing the difference between the upkeep of a graveled road over the cost of maintenance of the tarvated road.

There will be no added road bond tax, Judge Rothe commented, as the new tax will be a substitution of the present one which taxpayers of the county have been paying for the past 25 years on a bond issue voted in 1920 and which can be paid off in full this year, several years before actually due.

It is the plan of the Commissioners Court to use the $800,000 bond issue for the purpose of construction, maintenance and operation of macadamized, graveled or paved roads and turnpikes in the county.

COMMISSIONERS IN REGULAR SESSION

Medina County Commissioners Court met Monday, Oct. 8th, in regular session with all members present. The Court went through the routine business of approving bills and ordering them paid, and taking up preliminary proceedings in regard to the proposed road bond election set for November 10th, 1945.

The bids of Colglazier and Huff, Inc., and Kelly Construction Co. for the topping of approximately 2 miles of streets in the town of Castroville were received and considered by the Court. The bid of Colglazier and Huff, Inc. being the low bid, the Court by unanimous vote accepted the bid and agreed with the contractors to begin preparation of base preliminary to top. The topping of the streets is to be piling at the earliest date possible, paid for in major part by contributions tendered the Court by property owners whose properties lie adjacent to the street improvement project.

Court heard a committee of colored citizens relative to providing a roadway from the Hondo-Tarpley road east to connect with their cemetery. After some discussion the Court delegated Commissioner Britsch to contact the various property owners whose land would have to be traversed, should a roadway be provided and report to the Court at its next regular term.

SCOUTING

A Scouter's meeting was called by Mr. H. Z. Windrow, District Chairman, October 4, 1945, and was held in the basement of the First Baptist Church at 8:00 P. M. to discuss and plan Scout activities for the following year. Those attending this meeting were Byron F. Woolsey, Field Scout Executive; H. Z. Windrow, District Chairman; E. T. Buchanan, Scout Master Troop 130, Hondo Navigation Village; J. Frank Delony, Committee Chairman Troop 130; E. E. Dile, Committeeman, Troop 130; Paul Ganselman, Committeeman, Troop 130; Paul Riley, Scout Master, Troop 159, Hondo; A. P. Parma, Scout Master, Troop 160, LaCoste; R. A. Biediger, Committeeman, Troop 160; R. D. Bippert, Assistant Scout Master, Troop 160, LaCoste.

It was decided and planned to have an Eagle Court of Honor, for this District, which will be held Thursday, November 8, 1945, at 7:30 P. M. in the High School Auditorium, Hondo, Texas. THIS SHOULD BE PUT ON YOUR (MUST ATTEND) LIST FOR NEXT MONTH. LaCoste Troop 160 will present a 20 minute play, pertaining to scouting. Scouting awards will be presented to outstanding scouts of this District, and other forms of entertainment are being planned.

Let's get behind the Scout program in this District, and have a better, cleaner, and more peaceable District. Remember the date November 8, 1945. Remember the place, Hondo High School Auditorium, Hondo, Texas.

RED CROSS REPRESENTATIVE VISITS LOCAL CHAPTER

Miss Helen Pittman, Nursing field representative from St. Louis, visited the Medina County Chapter of the American Red Cross, on Oct. 9. She was very pleased with the report of Mrs. Brown, camp community nurse.

Miss Pittman also assisted in planning home nursing in the community. She said home nursing is the answer of the Red Cross Nursing Service to the need—now and in the future—of better health for American families. Red Cross home nursing attempts to develop self-reliance in the homemaker in handling illness in the home and in understanding the need of expert medical and nursing assistance in cases of a more serious nature. The courses are taught on a know-how basis to enable the "home nurse" to make the most of the doctor's time so that his services may extend to a greatly increased civilian practice. She is not expected to replace either a doctor or professional nurse, but she can be an intelligent assistant to doctors and nurses by learning simple nursing procedures.

INTERNATIONAL HARVESTER TO BEGIN NEW RADIO SHOW

CHICAGO, Ill.—International Harvester Company offers what may be considered a new concept in radio entertainment in its "Harvest of Stars," which goes on the air over all NBC stations for a half-hour broadcast at 2 p. m., eastern time, Sunday, Oct. 7, and regularly thereafter.

Woven in a dramatic and musically colorful pattern are the people, places and events that are America, under the talented hand of Raymond Massey, in the dual role of narrator Howard Barlow as conductor of the 70-piece International Harvester Orchestra. A choir of 20 mixed voices, under the direction of famed choral leader Lyn Murray, will lend vocal support to the production.

Taking off by plane from Europe, where he has been entertaining our GIs in the leading part in the play, "Our Town," Massey will fly home and is scheduled to arrive two days before the "Harvest of Stars" goes on the air, thus personally dramatizing the best tradition of the stage that "the play must go on."

Jan Pearce, noted tenor of opera and radio, will be the first guest star on this program, which has been announced as the first of a series in which many other guest stars will appear, among them Gladys Swarthout, Eugene List, and Budi Sayoa.

HONDO BOY MAKES RECORD

Once on Okinawa, Pvt. Jesus L. Barron of Hondo, Texas, was sure he would not leave the island alive, and when he resolved to die fighting he was surprised to note that he felt more optimistic about his chances for survival.

He was wounded later and is back in the United States for hospital treatment.

The 22-year-old former ranch hand and construction worker, son of Mrs. Rita Barron of Hondo, was overseas a year and fought in a heavy weapons company of the famous 96th Infantry (Deadeye) Division. He was a machine gunner and won the Combat Infantrymen Badge for exemplary conduct in action against the enemy.

Interviewed at Letterman General Hospital in San Francisco, where he arrived from the Pacific for transfer to another hospital, Private Barron told the story of the crucial hill battle in which he resigned himself to die at his machine gun.

"The Japs were trying to get up on a hill which dominated our positions," he recalled, "and from another hill we were trying to keep them off with machine gun fire until our riflemen would get up the hill and secure it. The Japs, of course, were trying to knock out our machine guns while their riflemen rushed the hill."

"They threw in mortar and machine gun fire on us, and all around me my buddies were being hit and killed. I felt tears come to my eyes, and I suddenly found myself fighting like a madman."

"When I left the foxhole at my machine gun to pick up a rifle and ammunition from a sergeant who had been killed, our lieutenant came up to take a look and flopped into my hole for protection. A few minutes later, a mortar shell fell squarely on him."

"So I started digging a hole nearby, and as each shell came over I put my head down in my arms and hugged the ground. I said to myself, 'I don't care what happens now. I'm going to stay right here'."

"Then I got the machine gun back in action, and when it was too hot, used the rifle. I know of 12 Japs I killed with the rifle alone, and there must have been more. Pretty soon I felt we were going to come out all right, and we did. We took the big hill later that same day."

Private Barron received his basic training in the Infantry Replacement Training Center at Camp Croft, S. C., and joined the "Deadeye" Division on Okinawa.

He was wounded in the left leg after an assault on another hill, the last his outfit had to take on Okinawa, when a Jap artillery shell exploded near him.

Up from the Meadows Rich with Corn

ONCE again the folks who feed the nation are harvesting one of the great crops of our history, and the record-breaking harvest of these war years has been produced by fewer people maintaining top production on more and more acres.

The progress that has been made in agriculture in recent years is almost unbelievable—corn yields of well over 100 bushels an acre, a rarity a few years ago, are now common; the production of ton-litters of hogs in less than 6 months after farrowing is no great problem now; hens that lay more than 200 eggs a year are not hard to find; and there are dairy cows with records of well over 30,000 pounds of milk and 1,000 pounds of butterfat annually.

All of these advances in the production of food have played an important part in the building of America to its present greatness and to victory in the war.

Back in the days of George Washington, one farm family was able to produce enough food for itself and one other family. Today each farm family in America can produce its own food and enough for 19 other families. This tells the story of the American harvest. And it is a story unique in world history.

We at Swift & Company salute our farmer and rancher friends for their great achievements and we are proud to have had a part in the preparation and distribution of the fruits of the harvest to Americans everywhere.

MEET THE WINNERS! Hundreds of letters were received in our contest for the best letter on this series of Swift advertisements. The judges have awarded first prize of $50 to 2nd Lt. Carroll M. Kester, 33rd Infantry Regiment, Camp Livingston, La., $25 to Mrs. Carl J. Bachmann, Barberton, Ohio, $15 to Mrs. Charles W. Voorhees, Trenton, N. J., $10 each to Virginia Jean Potts, Philadelphia, Pa., Harold E. Marsh, Winona, Minn., Daisy McCutcheon, Dillon, S. C., Doris Reim, Covington, Okla., Mrs. Edward Seigel, Wheat Ridge, Colo., Mrs. Paul Norris, Grinnell, Iowa, Mrs. James Lennox, Indianapolis, Ind.

SOFT CORN INTO HARD CASH

Corn that gets "cooked" by frost before it matures is still valuable feed, especially for cattle. Here are several ways to turn soft corn into hard cash, listed in the order of their value to the feeder: (a) Make ear-corn silage. (b) Feed ears with stalks, chopped or shredded. (c) Turn cattle and hogs into standing corn. (d) Leave in field and pick ears as needed rather than risk spoilage in storage.

Three main precautions in feeding soft corn are: (a) Change to soft corn ration gradually. (b) Feed a protein supplement. (c) Feed before freezing weather, if possible.

We'll be glad to tell you where to get detailed information on soft corn feeding. Write Swift & Company, Department 128, Chicago 9, Illinois.

THE EDITOR'S COLUMN

When the war began, Swift & Company adopted the following wartime policy:

"We will co-operate to the fullest extent with the U. S. Government to help win the war. We will do everything possible to safeguard the high quality of our products. Despite wartime difficulties, we will make every effort to distribute available civilian supplies to insure a fair share for all customers everywhere."

DO STEER CALVES GAIN FASTER?

Do male domestic animals grow faster and reach a greater weaning weight than females? This question is the basis of an interesting experiment conducted with beef cattle by Marvin Koger and J. H. Knox, New Mexico, A. & M.

They kept records of weaning weights of Hereford calves from the Experiment Station range herd from 1936 through 1943. Most of the calves were dropped in April of each year and all lots were weaned at approximately the same time each year, in October and November, depending on the feed supply and other factors. The sexes were not separated until know that there is no profit advantage in shipping meat long distances as compared with selling it nearby. OPA regulations set prices, by zones and areas, that meat packers may charge for beef, lamb, veal and pork. The United States is divided into ten zones for beef, lamb and veal and five for pork. Each has its own base price for each kind of meat. Additions to the base price are allowed for transportation and local delivery. These allowances are the very minimum and in many instances do not cover the actual cost of transportation, icing, and shrinkage. Consequently, meat packers are better off when they sell close to their producing plants. In general, the net money they receive is greater the closer to the plant the sale is made. But despite this, Swift & Company has voluntarily adhered to its wartime policy of fair distribution. Starting in July 1945, all meat packers were required by OPA regulations to distribute their meats to the same areas they did the first three months of 1944.

By Martha Logan
Combine 6 cups ground cooked beef or lamb, 3 cups mashed potatoes, 4 tablespoons minced onion, 1 1/2 cups top milk. Melt 8 tablespoons fat in skillet and cook hash until heated through. Season to taste. Shape hash in patties and place on greased shallow baking pan. Make a hollow in the center of each patty. Slip an egg into the hollow and season with salt and pepper. Bake in a moderately slow oven (325° F.) for 20 minutes.

RALPH G. ALLEN DEAD

Funeral services were held October 5th at Porter Loring's in San Antonio for Ralph G. Allen, 56, who died in that city on October 3rd, 1945. Dr. Posey, pastor of Baptist Temple, officiated. Interment was made in Sunset Memorial Burial Park under the auspices of the Masonic Order. Attending the funeral from Hondo were Mrs. R. L. Jennings, Mrs. W. T. Crow, Mrs. H. H. Crow, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Merriam, Mrs. J. M. Fusselman, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Clements, Robert Clements and Mrs. V. H. Crow, and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Clements, of Sabinal.

Ralph G. Allen was born March 13, 1889, in Alabama, and moved with his family to Texas in 1904, making their home at Ben Arnold, near Cameron. He enlisted in the Navy on his 20th birthday and after 2 1/2 years service received a medical discharge. He was a veteran railroad man starting in 1912 with the old S.A.A.P. and after moving to San Antonio went to work for the Southern Pacific in December 1915. He was a conductor and would have been with the S. P. 30 years in December.

He became a member of the Baptist Church at an early age and was also a member of Alzafar Shrine. Benevolently inclined, the deceased had great love for his fellowmen, especially children and old people. The large funeral cortege and the many beautiful flowers attested to his wide circle of friends.

On October 18, 1917, he was married in Hondo to Miss Annie Merriam of this city. Besides his wife, he leaves one son, Ralph Allen; a granddaughter; four sisters, Mrs. A. E. McClendon, of Ben Arnold, Texas, Mrs. R. E. Wise, of Mayfield, Texas, Mrs. W. H. Sanders, of Opelika, Ala., and Mrs. N. O. Kennedy, of Corpus Christi, Texas; and two brothers, W. I. Allen, of Camden, Ark., and C. L. Allen, of Marlin, Texas.

Only a question of time...

Telephone factories are already turning out some of the equipment needed to serve the 246,000 persons waiting for telephones in the Southwest at war's end.

That stream will grow mightily in the months ahead. It will move slowly for a while of course. It takes time to manufacture and install new apparatus.

A telephone alone contains 248 precision parts. Switchboards and dial central office equipment for only 10,000 telephones must be designed to handle nearly 50,000,000 possible interconnections.

But we've made a start. We've turned the corner. We're on our way. Every month ahead brings us closer to serving all who want telephones without delay.

EISENHOWER AND RUSSIANS

Gen. Dwight Eisenhower, a real diplomat, has been making progress toward friendship with the Russians, but got a setback the other day.

U. S. officials entering Eisenhower's office found him despondent. He was holding a copy of Time magazine.

"Look at that," he said, "six weeks' work gone."

Eisenhower pointed to a picture of a female entertainer in a Berlin night club standing on her head, legs apart, holding a picture of Stalin between them. Time had reproduced the picture.

"And just as I was making some progress with Marshal Zhukov," Eisenhower mourned. "First he would scarcely see me. But recently we have become pretty good friends. When I go into his office he says, 'Here's to Ike.'"

Eisenhower went on to tell how Zhukov was blazing mad over the Time magazine picture. He had just come from seeing the Russian commander who had demanded:

"What are you going to do about this?"

"Nothing," replied Eisenhower.

"What! You let the American press make mockery of the marshal?" exclaimed Zhukov.

"That's what we fought the war for—the right to criticize, the right for people to say what they please," said Eisenhower.

Eisenhower went on to explain to the Russian that because one newspaper or magazine published a picture of Stalin, it did not reflect the sentiment of either the American government or the American people, and that the American government scrupulously refrained from censoring the press on matters of this kind.

However, the Russians continue to be sensitive. It is hard for them to understand the difference between a regulated press as in the Soviet and a free press as in the U. S. A.

NEW SUPREME COURT JUSTICE

President Truman really let his hair down with Senator Burton when he called him in last week to tell him he was being nominated to the Supreme court.

Catching Burton just before the Ohio senator was about to leave for Cincinnati, Truman told him that he had actually promised the Supreme court job to another man, Robert Patterson, now secretary of war, but changed his mind.

"Harold," said Truman at the start of the interview, "I've made up my mind to appoint you to the Supreme court."

"You were always my first choice," Truman continued, "but I had some vacillations. I considered appointing Phillips of Denver, Parker of North Carolina and Patterson."

"Finally I decided to appoint Patterson and told him I was going to appoint him."

Truman then explained that it was better to leave Patterson in the war department to replace Stimson as secretary of war.

"One of the things that disturbed me about your appointment," Truman continued, "was the probable claim that I might be playing politics in order to get a Democratic senator from Ohio." (Truman had in mind the fact that Governor Lausche of Ohio, a Democrat, now can appoint a Democratic senator to replace Burton, a Republican.)

"So I talked it over with Alben Barkley," Truman explained, "and he advised that if I was convinced you were the right man, I should appoint you and let political consequences go hang."

Note—Truman had picked up Senator Barkley at Paducah, Ky., the evening before and flown him back to Washington in his special plane, at which time they had conferred regarding the Burton appointment. Truman, incidentally, seems to be leaving more and more on sage, experienced Barkley for advice.

CAPITAL CHAFF
President Truman still keeps up his rapid-fire early-morning appointment pace, sees as many as 15 visitors before lunch. Greek Publisher Basil Viavianos visited Truman the other day, caught him sneaking a yawn and long stretch between callers.

A new breath of fresh air in the post office department: Gael E. Sullivan of Chicago, assistant postmaster general.

Visitors to the Franklin Roosevelt Memorial library at Hyde Park have doubled since the late President's death. Mrs. Roosevelt gave each of Henry Morgenthau's children a trinket from the former chief executive's desk as a memento.

When Nelson Rockefeller was eased out of the state department, workers in that building were startled to see trucks removing the furniture from his office. He had furnished his suite with his own furniture. When the truck pulled away, even the chandeliers, which were Rockefeller's personal property, had been taken.

MRS. J. T. GREEN HAS BETTER SUCCESS WITH LESS EFFORT

HARRINGTON, DELAWARE.—Mrs. James T. Green is a Texan who moved to Delaware. While in the East she used some other brands of laundry starch, and then wrote this letter:

"When I was in Texas I became acquainted with Faultless Starch and liked it very much. I never used any starch like it. I have used many other brands, but I can have better success with less effort with Faultless Starch. I have my son's little suits to wash often and it is a great help to know that I can just dip them in cold starch and they will iron so nice and smooth."

Faultless Starch has been especially made for women who want to do beautiful starching and ironing—with as little work as possible. That's why Faultless Starch satisfies women like Mrs. James T. Green. It is truly a special kind of starch, made a special way.

PERFECT HOT OR COLD

Whether you want hot starch or cold starch, you can make perfect starch—WITHOUT COOKING. For cold starch you simply add cold water to the starch while you stir. For hot starch you simply cream the starch with a little cool water and add boiling water while stirring. Either hot or cold, it takes barely a minute to make perfect starch.

MAKES IRONING EASY

Another special feature about Faultless Starch is that—Faultless Starch contains ironing-aids that keep the iron from sticking. Your iron just slides along. No more fighting a "sticky" iron. You'll enjoy ironing over Faultless Starch, for beautiful ironing becomes a joy—not a job.

You might just as well enjoy Faultless Starch—just like so many thousands of other women do. Just ask your grocer for Faultless Starch today. Use it the very next time you wash. Save the work of cooking starch. Save the work of fighting a "sticky" iron. Do beautiful starching and ironing. Simply change to Faultless Starch.—Adv.

LOG OF A MAN IN QUEST OF BETTER FISHING

1.—Man who has the ambitions of Mike Lerner but not the time, equipment or information, tires of fairly good fishing in his own area at Indian river.

2.—News of big run of stripers at Wahoo beach 300 miles away, coupled with pictures of man who got a 40-pounder there last week, causes him to decide to pack immediately and leave home grounds, where only snapper blues have been biting.

3.—Start of trip delayed by long job of packing outboard motor, extra rods, tackle boxes, slickers, boots, gear of all kinds, utility clothing, etc. Drives 80 miles for first stop at Kickapoo Inlet. Finds bass were there last week, but are far away now. Asks if anything is running and gets answer: "Small snapper blues."

4.—Drives 50 miles to Big Horse Cove, well-known striped bass grounds. Sees numerous boats in bay. Rushes eagerly to boathouse and asks "What's doing in stripers?" Gets answer: "You know how bass are?" Replies: "No. How are they?" Is told: "Ain't heard of one caught in ten days. Nice run of snapper blues, though."

5.—Calls it a day and spends night deploring the luck. Starts early next morning for Roaring Rip, 60 miles away, on a report a feller got 20 nice ones, ranging up to 35 pounds, a few days ago. Finds bridge and beaches crowded with people getting snapper blues. "Any bass?" "Not lately. Ought to be good next month."

6.—Remembers hearing of a striped bass fishermen's paradise at Killikowick Point, always good in October. Drives 100 miles more. Finds famous guide, Stew Woodson, half asleep in a skiff in a small inlet. "How's the stripers?" "You're late. They was here last week. Nice run of snappers now." Asks Stew if any reports of stripers at other points. "Chet Baker got over half a hundred big ones four days ago at Winnepesaukee Ledge," is reply.

7.—Gets up at daybreak next morning and drives 90 miles to Winnepesaukee Ledge. Not a surf-caster around anywhere. Boats all at moorings. "Ain't been a striper took in last three days," says the guide. "School moved to Mulligans Bay, I guess. Snapper blues runnin' as big as six inches."

8.—Consults map and finds he is within 150 miles of Razzeldazzle harbor, famed for its stripers. Decides he might as well try it there. Reaches there at sunset. No bass in six weeks. Guides look for 'em around November this year. (But snappers are in!)

9.—Reaches home weak, sore and disgusted. Crossing iron bridge over Indian river, two miles from his own house, sees Ernie Perry and Ed Dudek casting for stripers. "Any luck?" he asks. "Boy, where've you been?" is reply. "Best run of stripers this season here for last five days."

10.—Throws outboard motor, fishing gear, maps, etc., into river and shoots self.

THE TROLLEY CAR PASSES.

New York City, one of the last strongholds of the surface car, announces that they will be removed from the streets by January 1. We, for one, feel a little sad, not only to see the trolley car pass from the streets of Gotham but from any other place. It was a symbol of a happier, more philosophical and more comfortable America.

The swifter, more up to date and less restricted bus has replaced it all over the land, but to us a bus is as satisfactory a substitute for a trolley as a witch's broom would be for a ride on a cloud.

Not that we have been on a trolley in years. We don't remember the last time, but our childhood memories of the trolley ride are bright and glamorous. We can recall trolley cars on the Sylvan avenue line back home that we loved. And trolleys on the run from Merwin's beach, miles through a leafy passage by Woody Crest, Rocky Ledge, Prospect Beach and West Haven that still seems like something out of a fairy tale.

We have a particularly soft spot for the first trolley we ever remember. Grandma took us for a ride. It was winter. And it had a stove in the center and a conductor with side whiskers who put in a shovel of coal now and then.

An American congressman urges that we introduce baseball to the Russians. Can you imagine what would happen under Stalin to a pitcher who pitched his own way?

Can You Remember—
Away back when a small steak sold for 40 cents instead of $3.50?

Our big job is to select the war criminals of Japan. It would be a lot easier to pick the ones who are not.

Now 4 POINTS FOR USED FATS

Help Increase Supplies of Soap and Other Peacetime Products By Saving More Used Fats

Industrial fats far short of last year! We are almost down to the bottom of the barrel. The nation's industrial fat supply is millions of pounds less than it was in 1944. We need fully as much as last year to help make the soaps and other civilian goods you want and need so badly. So...

If you want more soap and soap flakes... if you're dreaming of nylons, sheets, cotton fabrics and want them to hurry back to the store counters... you can help by saving those used kitchen fats as you never saved before! Save every drop, every day!

These fats are vitally necessary to help speed greater supplies of soaps and hundreds of other things—like new cars, electric washers, irons, refrigerators and tires. Industry must have these fats... to help get to you more quickly the peacetime products you've been longing to have for years!

So skim and scrape and scoop just as you did so faithfully before V-J Day. To prove how important it is, your government has increased the point bonus. So help meet this nation's need by continuing to save used fats. If you can't find a store that accepts used fats, call Home Demonstration or County Agent.
